At The MOTION PICTURE THEATRES

WOMAN HOLDS BALANCE
IN FIGHT BETWEEN MEN OF THE EAST AND WEST

Virginia Pearson is the controlling power in "Daredevil Kate," a new William Fox production which is showing today at the Pastime. The story is of a woman's rise and redemption and the brains of the east are pitted against the strength of the west. Daredevil Kate is a near vampire type, a mixture of women, Cleopatra, Carmen and Cigarette all are represented in the "daredevil" reality of this girl bandit. Daredevil Kate is a character unique in literature and motion pictures. Kate begins by being a bad woman, a keeper of one of the most notorious resorts in a small western mining town, then through the influence of some easterners, one of whom she eventually falls in love with, all that is good in her nature asserts itself and she becomes good. Then things do not run smooth and she relapses into wickedness with redoubled energy and when she again becomes good, she does so to stay. The story deals with life in the rough, of mining men, gun men and the more gentle nature of the easterner who is called west on business. It is a red-blooded play for red blooded people and the management of the Pastime recommends it as a picture that will add to the prestige of his theater.

Alta Friday and Saturday.
A genuine real-life countess in a screen story of a diplomatic tangle, resulting in an international marriage, is one unusual feature of the Oliver Morosco production of that name.

Rita Jolivet, star of the stage and the courts of Europe, is the real-life countess around whom hinges the drama and smiles of a wonderfully told story.

Her gowns, worn exclusively in this production are the greatest creations of the most famous designers. Not alone lavish, but charming in their originality and beauty they will delight feminine and masculine eyes the world over.

The story is concerned with Rita Jolivet as Florence Brent, daughter of a laundry king, whose beauty and "satin gloss" of refinement, attract a nobleman of much ambition, but no scruples. The outcome is a distinct surprise, in twist, plot and originality.

At the Cosy.

"The Claque of Gold," one of Emil Gaborian's most famous detective stories, has been converted to screen by Bluebird Photoplays and will be exhibited at the Cosy theater tonight under the title of "The Evil Women Do." With this feature Bluebird diversifies its routine of offerings by injecting strong melodrama into the series, bidding for the patronage of those who love gripping episode, sensational events and a theme that stirs the emotions in extreme degrees. (Lester Julian, Elsie Jane Wilson and Pranceila Billington who play the leading characters. Mr. Julian will present his artistry in the double capacity of leading man and director and those who recall his past successes in the Bluebird series will have assurance in the advance of splendid entertainment.
